

European Urban Academy

The place to discuss urban transformations – sharing knowledge and experiences

What is the European Urban Academy ?

- A 2 years training cycle, with wix seminars in Europe and abroad (30 days)
- A free zone of discussion and critical thinking dedicated to European middle and Top-executives dealing with urban challenges
- Scientific drivers and case studies for each seminar
- High-level speakers from various fields of expertise
- High quality programme ensured by a scientific committee composed by academic experts on urban issues

Provisional planning

February 2021

The Paris region: towards an integrated or fragmented global region?

May 2021

Hanoi: The case of a city in an emerging country. Growth and governance of the city.

October 2021

Ravenna: Regeneration of a district

February 2022

To be defined

May 2022

Geneva: the planning of a cross border metropolitan region.

October 2022

Leipzig: Successful adaptation to extreme dynamics – from shrinkage to re-growth.

European academic partners

UNIVERSITÄT
LEIPZIG

UNIVERSITÉ
DE GENÈVE

Institutional partners

Who are the auditors ?

3 target groups

- Staff members from municipalities, metropolitan and other local authorities
- Staff members from companies, firms, planning and architectural offices providing urban services.
- People interested in cities such as NGOs, journalists or trade unionists.

The Academy is opened to people from all countries English is a prerequisite.

Reasons to enroll

- Tackle urban challenges with a multi-disciplinary and cross sectoral approach.
- Meet and learn from international experts on the urban issues.
- Immersive approach with onsite case-studies.
- Extend professional network in various countries and fields.
- Explore business opportunities.

Admission costs

Will range from 15 000€ to 25 000€

Thank you for your attention

Contact information:

Antoine Frémont:

antoine.fremont@ifsttar.fr

Pierre Perrin:

pierre.perrin@univ-paris-est.fr